

Brian Long

Brian was born and raised here in Poughkeepsie, New York.

In 1993, he received a BS degree in Business Finance from Plattsburgh University. He has over 13 years of mortgage sales and sales management experience.

He has been employed by some of the larger industry lenders, including Personal Mortgage Corp, Citimortgage, and Freemont Investment. He has funded mortgages throughout the country, focusing mainly in the New York tri-state area.

In his spare times he loves the outdoors. During the summer months he spends much of his free time on a boat on the Hudson River, either fishing or relaxing with his family and friends.

With the ever changing mortgage industry, you will feel comfortable working with Brian and his vast mortgage experience.

Brian has the experience needed to help put his clients in programs that best suit their needs.
