

Erika Stavanau

Erika was born and raised in New Hamburg, NY where she lived until college. She attended East Caroline University in Greenville, NC, where she graduated in 1996 with a Bachelors of Science degree. After graduation, she moved to Colorado for several years. In 2003, she returned to NY with her husband Allyn. They reside in Poughkeepsie with their 2 children. Erika has been in the mortgage business since her return to NY and she is proud to work for Shadowood Mortgage-a company built by her sister-Jessica Schoen. Erika is an active volunteer in the community with several different organizations and also involved in her kids activities. Erika is a loan originator, processor, and office manager at Shadowood Mortgage.